HAPPY BIRTHDAY!
Feb. 13 - Zachary Sheppard

LOVE ISN'T JUST FOR FEBRUARY 14TH

At the end of the 5th century, Pope Gelasius declared February 14th St. Valentine's Day. Since then, February 14th has been a day of celebration...though it was generally more religious than romantic.

Taking a day out of the year is good to show that special someone you love and cherish for being exceptional. Showering them with attention, flowers, chocolate-covered strawberries, or taking them to dinner. (Guys, are you getting the hint?)

In the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians, Paul lists some crucial things Christians need to heed about our love for one another. What chapter in the Bible is more fitting for A husband and wife to read together?

⁴ Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. ⁵ It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. ⁶ Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. ⁷ It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. I Cor. 13:4-7

God is love...who better to advise on ways to love and honor. Paul was writing to the Church in Corinthians, but husbands and wives can strengthen their relationship if this method is examined. Valentine's Day is a start. Make every day a day of love and honor.

John 13:34-35 "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. ³⁵ By this, everyone will know that you are my disciples if you love one another."

~JoAnn Hamil
