THE PRICE IS RIGHT

The popular TV show The Price is Right has drawn crowds for years. People dress up in all manner of ways to draw attention to themselves and be picked to participate on stage. The object of the game is to win. Win prizes that are worth something or will amount to nothing.

The hype generated is exciting and loud. Shouting and yelling for the contestant to pick the correct door is a fever pitch. Despite all the noise and suggestions, the contestant is left to pick which door. The excitement lasts until the door is chosen and the prize is revealed.

Presenting The Gospel is not just somewhat similar, but it's a profound parallel. The prize for choosing the correct door is not just worth more; it's of infinite value and surpasses what the world can imagine. The cost of our forgiveness is not just priceless, and it's beyond any measure. Door number one holds our soul's destiny. The prize behind door number two has the worldly material dreams of many people who don't understand what is at stake.

Prayers, Love, and concern are the hype Christians should proclaim so loud the world can't ignore the noise. "You are forgiven, and your debt is paid in full" is not just a message; it's a life-changing truth. Door number one holds the key to salvation for all. No silly costumes, painted faces, or crazy hats are necessary. Humbly accepting the offer made from a cross and an empty tomb will bring you forgiveness that isn't offered by any other means. The Price is Right. You owe nothing. The reward is priceless beyond our imagination.

~JoAnn Hamil

Ladies/Moms, let's be like the Titus women, teaching their children God's word. Bring your children to Sunday School. This is an important way to teach our children. Remember Timothy's mother and grandmother taught him from a young age.

Today, Sunday School is geared to help us as parents and grandparents teach our children at a young age. We are looking forward to seeing your child in Sunday School.
