IMITATING CHRIST'S HUMILITY

Scripture Reading — Philippians 2:1-5

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.

Philippians 2:3-4

As followers of Christ, we are called to embrace a servant attitude, putting the needs of others before our own.

This humility echoes the very heart of Jesus, who came not “to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many” (Mark 10:45).

In a world that often exalts self-promotion and personal gain, we stand apart by valuing others above ourselves. We seek to meet the needs of people around us, extending kindness, empathy, and compassion.

A servant attitude begins with a heart transformed by God's love.

As we live in God's presence, we learn to lay down our ambitions and egos, making room for selflessness and sacrificial love. We act with grace and love toward others, just as God has done for us.

In every interaction, let's consider the interests of others, seeking opportunities to serve in both big and small ways.

May we be known not by our accomplishments but by our love and by our servant hearts that follow the example of Jesus.

PRAYER: Spirit of God, mold my heart in humility and love to imitate the Lord Jesus. Help me to value others above myself and to serve selflessly. May I reflect Christ's love for the benefit of others in this world each day. In Jesus' name, Amen.
