TAKE A MOMENT AND LOOK AT YOUR HANDS

Hands. Most of us take them for granted and use them without conscious thought. Women go to the nail salon and have them manicured because of their pride. Men usually will not think beyond keeping them clean until they smash them with some tool, at which point their attention centers on the pain.

Our hands are just an extension of our body to use as needed.

The need to look at our hands began with Adam and Eve in the garden. I John 2:16..." For all that is in the world...the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life is not from the Father, but is from the world".

Pride of life: a boastful desire for the status of life.
Lust of the flesh: a craving for sensual gratification.
Lust of the eye; Greedy longings of the mind.

Matthew 23:13: Jesus stated that he who exalts himself would be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.

Human nature is a field of dreams for the Prince of Darkness. Our weakness will fall into one of the categories.

When I am in danger of drifting into one of the categories, one action brings me back from that door. I bow my head and open my hands, bringing reality back into focus. I realize there are no scars on the palms. There have been no spikes driven into them. My hands have had no part in my salvation.

When I have a moment of prideful action or thought about my existence, just opening my hands and looking at the absence of scars puts things back into perspective. It reminds me that Jesus is the one who paid the price with his death. Jesus is the one with the wounds. Jesus is the one who made it possible for me to be in His Kingdom. Jesus is my savior. Remembering what He did and is still doing is an honor for me.

~JoAnn Hamil
