RESCUE

Baptism is the most beautiful symbolic thing there is in scripture..

Baptism is the faith response of a sinner. If I'm lost and cannot save myself, I need a Savior. That savior is our Passover lamb, Jesus, the Christ. His perfect life as a man produced a perfect sacrifice that satisfied God for all time.

Jesus says, "In faith do what I did. Where I died physically, I want you to die also - die to self. I want you to repent, confess my name, change your mind, your direction; then, others will bury your dead body like they did mine - put it in a grave of water. And, as God brought me out of the grave, he will do the same for you."

Christ says, "I destroyed not only Satan, but also the second death. You now have my salvation gift. Additionally, while you live here in this Devil infested world, I am giving you the Holy Spirit to live in you. You are part of my body, the church. My blood now continually keeps you alive and in a right relationship with me.

I'm in you, you're in me - we are both in the Father. Trust me completely while the Holy Spirit changes you little by little into the way I served. I give you spiritual armor. All true blessings are yours. Be thankful. Practice love."
