Precious Predictions of Christ

I love how God whispered clues about Christ's coming throughout the entire Old Testament. These wonderful prophecies prove the supernatural and purposeful actions of God in human history.

Psalm 22 is one example. It contains vivid descriptions of Christ's crucifixion: "I am poured out like water, and all my bones are disjointed; . . . my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth. . . . They pierced my hands and my feet. . . . People look and stare at me" (vv. 14-17).

Look at these stunning comparisons below:

Psalm 22:1: "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"

Matthew 27:46: "About three in the afternoon Jesus cried out with a loud voice, 'Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?' that is, 'My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?'"

Psalm 22:7-8: "Everyone who sees me mocks me; they sneer and shake their heads: 'He relies on the Lord; let him save him; let the Lord rescue him, since he takes pleasure in him.'"

Matthew 27:39, 43: "Those who passed by were yelling insults at him, shaking their heads. . . . 'He trusts in God; let God rescue him now—if he takes pleasure in him!'"

Psalm 22:18: "They divided my garments among them selves, and they cast lots for my clothing."

Matthew 27:35: "After crucifying him, they divided his clothes by casting lots."

Beginning in Genesis 3:15, God planted "clues" about the coming of our Savior. He wants us to know that all along He had a plan to turn our darkness to light and our death to life.

Thousands of years before Christ came to earth, Psalm 22 told us about His sacrificial death for our sins. Isn't it wonderful to know that God's love for us is present in every detail of His revelation?
