HAPPY ANNIVERSARY!

BUMMER LAMB

Every now and then, a ewe will give birth to a lamb and immediately reject it. Sometimes the lamb is rejected because there are twins and the mother doesn't have enough milk, or because she is just old and tired. They call these bummer lambs. Unless the shepherd intervenes...that lamb will die.

So the shepherd will take that little one into his home and hand feed it from a bottle and keep it warm by the fire. He will wrap it up warm and hold it close enough to hear a heart beat. When the lamb is strong, the shepherd will place it back in the field with the rest of the flock.

The most beautiful sight is when the shepherd approaches his flock in the morning and calls them out, "Sheep, sheep, sheep!"

The first to run to him are the bummer lambs, because they know his voice.

I am so grateful that Christ calls Himself the Good Shepherd. "He calls His own sheep by name and leads them out. After He has gathered His own flock, He walks ahead of them, and they follow Him because they know His voice." John 10:3-4 (NLT)

In the most painful place in my life, I too learned the most profound lesson. We are loved because we are His. Until the day I see Jesus face to face...I will be a bummer lamb.
