Tribute to Ms. Boots

Honoring a Cherished Member of Our Families and Community

Grief touches each one of us at some point in our lives. Whether it is the loss of a mother, father, brother, or sister, the ache of missing someone dear is universal. From the beginning, we were created to be in connection with others—God knew “it was not good for man to be alone.” When a beloved soul like Ms. Boots passes, the grief that follows is meant to be shared among all who were privileged to know her.

Ms. Boots was not just a member of her physical family, but also belonged to a spiritual family and a larger community family. Each of these groups will experience her absence in a unique way. The void she leaves behind is profound, because only she could fill that particular space in our lives. Her warmth, kindness, and presence were irreplaceable.

Every person who knew Ms. Boots will grieve differently, shaped by the bond and memories they shared with her. Some may remember her gentle guidance, others her steadfast faith, and many the love she poured into her community. Yet in the midst of sorrow, we are united by gratitude—for we have all been blessed to know a remarkable lady who occupied a place in our hearts that no one else can fill.

As we mourn the passing of Ms. Boots, let us also celebrate the life she lived, the joy she brought, and the legacy she leaves behind. We honor her memory not just through our grief, but by cherishing the moments and the values she shared with us.

Ms. Boots, we will miss you dearly. Your influence endures in the lives you touched, and your spirit will remain with us always.

~Joann Hamil

Pray with All Your Heart Believe with All
Your Soul & You Will See God Move

*Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise.
Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord.*
James 5:13-14

PRAYERS ARE
